Massage Options

Holistic Massage

Holistic massage is the application of relaxing supportive touch to relieve muscular pain, release toxins, and reduce stress. It offers both physical and emotional benefits and is believed to help reestablish balance in the body and mind.

Session of one hour

$900

Aromatherapy Massage

Aromatherapy combines the relaxing techniques of holistic massage with the use of fragrant essential oils, concentrated from various plant-based extracts. The oils are known to have a profound effect on the entire body, physically and mentally, and may even be helpful in relieving chronic pain.

Session of one hour

$990

Relaxation/Anti-Stress Massage

The relaxation, or anti-stress, massage incorporates deep slow pressure to relieve the body and mind of day-to-day anxieties. Its benefits extend to the spirit, resulting in general feelings of happiness.

Session of one hour

$810

Swedish/Deep-tissue Massage

In Swedish, or deep-tissue, massage, pressure is applied in a slow firm manner, penetrating the layers of muscles and fascia. It is believed to relieve chronic pain, to reduce inflammation, and to alleviate tension. This method lowers blood pressure, and reestablishes the body's hormonal levels, resulting in improved emotional health as well.

Session of one hour

$990

Shiatsu

Shiatsu massage is a Japanese technique involving pressure, kneading, and stretching of specific points in order to enhance energy flow, reestablish the harmony of the body, and alleviate mental and physical stress. This deeply relaxing therapy is also used to treat a variety of chronic illnesses from joint problems, neck and back pain, to bronchitis.

Session of one hour

$990

Alternative Therapies

Reiki

Reiki is a Japanese alternative treatment through which the therapist places their palms over the 19 chakras, or energy centers, of the body to channel the universal life-force, alleviating illness and enhancing health. Many believe that this non-massage technique replenishes and reestablishes equilibrium to the body, mind, and spirit.

Session of one hour

$900

Reflexology

Reflexology is an alternative therapy, based on ancient methods, for treating the entire body through the application of pressure to the various parts of the feet, hands, and head. It is promoted as a remedy for certain medical conditions, to alleviate stress and depression, and to advance proper sleep.

Session of one hour

$900

To reserve an extra

Promotions, spa services, and finishing touches may be reserved at the time of booking a guestroom on www.quintagyo.com.

They may also be requested by sending an e-mail to reservations@quintagyo.com, indicating:

- 1) the name of the guest listed on the reservation,
- 2) the reservation number,
- 3) the dates of the stay, and
- 4) the services desired.

The e-mail of the request and the confirmation constitute the explicit authorization of the guest for Quinta GYO to make the charges for the total cost of the requested services to the bank card that the guest used to guarantee their reservation.

By ordering the services, the guest accepts the following policies:

Policies

Policy for Promotions

Promotion rates do not include the guestroom, which must be reserved independently.

Promotions are available up to two full days prior to the scheduled date of arrival and are subject to availability.

Quinta GYO will make its best effort to ensure that all components of a requested promotion are provided. In the event that the hotel cannot provide any component of a promotion, the cost of the promotion will be reduced by the prorated value of said component. If the promotion has already been paid for, the guest will be reimbursed the prorated value of the component. No other compensation will be made. Quinta GYO reserves the right to determine the prorated value of all promotion components.

No compensation (or reimbursement) will be made for any promotion item that the guest chooses not to use.

Messages that are part of a promotion are subject to the Policy for Spa Services. Extras that are part of a promotion are subject to the Policy for Extras.

Once confirmed, a promotion cannot be cancelled or modified fewer than six full days before the date of arrival.

Policy for Spa Services

Spa services and the scheduling of spa services are subject to availability.

Spa services may be requested at any time during the guest's stay. Services reserved at least two full days before the scheduled date of arrival receive the discounted rate found in the Quinta GYO website and scheduled fewer than three full days before the scheduled date of arrival.

Quinta GYO makes its best effort to schedule spa services to accommodate the guest's preferences. In the event that the guest's preferred time is not available, the guest is obligated to select an alternate available time. Refusal of the guest to accommodate the times available for promotions and pre-paid services does not constitute a failure of Quinta GYO to deliver the service; therefore, the guest will not be entitled to any reimbursement for the cost of the spa service.

Once the scheduling of a spa service has been confirmed at the time agreed by the guest, it cannot be cancelled or modified fewer than three full days before the date of arrival. For spa services reserved and scheduled fewer than three full days before the scheduled date of arrival, including those reserved during the guest's stay; once the scheduling of a service has been confirmed at the time agreed by the guest, it cannot be cancelled or modified.

Quinta GYO makes its best effort to ensure that spa services are given at the scheduled time. In the event that a service cannot be given at the scheduled time, the guest will nevertheless be entitled to the full length of the spa service or to the reimbursement of any payment already made for the spa service. No other compensation will be made.

The guest agrees to forfeit at full cost any portion (up to the entirety) of a confirmed scheduled spa service for which they are not present (for example, in the case of late arrival or failure to appear).

The guest must inform the therapist of any past or present illness, injury, or medical condition. The guest releases Quinta GYO and the therapist from all civil and legal liability relating to any spa service.

Policy for Extras

Additional services (a.k.a., Extras or Finishing Touches) are subject to availability. The guest is advised to request any extra no fewer than two full days prior to the scheduled date of arrival.

Quinta GYO will make its best effort to ensure that all requested extras are provided. In the event that the hotel cannot provide an extra, the guest will not be charged for said extra and will be reimbursed any amount that has already been paid for that extra. No other compensation will be made.

No compensation (or reimbursement) will be made for any extra that the guest chooses not to use.

Once confirmed, an extra cannot be cancelled or modified fewer than three full days before the date of arrival.
